Kenton County Grand Jury Indicts Justus Goebel For Bribery!

The Kenton County Grand Jury on Saturday returned indictments against every member of the Board of Aldermen and Board of Councilmen for misconduct in office; against Justus Goebel for bribery, and against A. Gerwe, former Secretary of the Water-works Board, for embezzlement. Justus Goebel is indicted on the charge that he secured the appointment of Jerry Kirtley as City Auditor, and received $50 a month from his salary of $150 a month as compensation for the appointment. Justus Goebel, who is a brother of the late William Goebel, is a prominent and wealthy merchant of Cincinnati, but residing in Covington. He is now in Arizona. Circuit Judge Tarvin issued a bench warrant for the arrest of Justus Goebel and fixed his bond at $500.

ANOTHER PIONEER PASSES.

The Death on Saturday Night of Mrs. G. W. Blatterman.

At 11:30 o'clock Saturday night the venerable Mrs. George W. Blatterman passed to that blessed estate to which she goes as an inheritor by right of faith, consistency and obedience.

Mrs. Blatterman was Eleanor Collins, eldest daughter of Judge and Mrs. Lewis Collins, pioneer citizens of Maysville, and granddaughter of Brigadier Major Valentine Peers of the Revolutionary War. She was born February 18th, 1835, and at the age of 14 united with the Presbyterian Church, being baptized by the famous Dr. Edgar, who subsequently, as Pastor at Nashville, Tenn., baptized and received into the Church ex-President Andrew Jackson.

October 24th, 1845, Miss Collins became the wife of Mr. George W. Blatterman of Virginia. To them came seven children, four daughters and three sons, one only being dead, Miss Fannie, who died November, 1891.

Those surviving are Mr. L. C. Blatterman and Mrs. William Wormald of this city; Mrs. W. B. Brooks of Greensboro, N. C.; Miss Katie and J. Baron of Atlanta, Ga., and Walter of St. Louis, Mo., all of whom were present save Mrs. Brooks and Walter. These, with seven grandchildren, two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Thomas A. Ross of Cincinnati, Mrs. J. C. Owens of Maysville and Captain Val P. Collins of Covington, are the immediate mourners.

In October, 1893, Mr. and Mrs. Blatterman celebrated their golden wedding, which had indeed a deep significance, for not only has their path been one golden floodtide of happiness, but since that event these two have walked in the delightful evening of life surrounded by love, gentleness and freedom from care, which is only broken now for a brief season.

Ever since the organization of the Valentine Peers Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, Mrs. Blatterman has been Regent, and in her death this organization has lost a devoted head and most able member.

The funeral will occur this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Central Presbyterian Church, with services by the Rev. John C. Molloy.

The burial will be private.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Rosch's German Syrup." It not only soothes and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

Laxakola

THE GREAT TONIC LAXATIVE.

It is the best and most effective laxative for children. BEST because it is safe and made entirely of harmless ingredients. BEST because it is non-irritating and never grips or causes pain or irritation. BEST because it is sure and never fails. BEST because "Children like it and ask for it."

It is a dangerous thing to give little babies violent remedies that rack and rend their little bodies. DON'T DO IT—give them Laxakola. For constipation, coated tongue, simple colds and fevers it is invaluable.

LADIES.—Laxakola acts as a tonic to the whole female system, strengthening the organs and purifying the blood. It will cure the most confirmed case of constipation. With your bowels and stomach free from all impurities, and your blood pure and rich, backaches, headaches, weak nerves, bloating, nervous prostration, and all other ailments will vanish and you will feel and look strong, healthy and vigorous. SENSATIONAL DISCOVERY.

C. H. Church Had Prepared a Vault and Intended to Burn His Victim's Body.

Louisville, Ky., July 1.—When the effects of C. H. Church, the murderer of Mrs. Emily Stuart, who committed suicide, were sold at auction a sensational discovery was made at the little grocery store. It was found that a trap door had been cut in the floor just under the counter, leading into a small vault-like compartment. This had been filled with oil, waxed paper and rags, and it is believed now that Church intended to move Mrs. Stuart's body down this trap door and then set fire to the house to hide all traces of his crime. What kept him from carrying out his plan can not be surmised.

THING OF THE PAST.

The Last of the Volunteer Regiments Paid Off and Mustered Out of Service.

MAJ. GEN. SHAFTER ON RETIRED LIST.

The Command of the Department of California Turned Over to Maj. Gen. S. M. B. Young.

George Price, Colored, of Kentucky, Company G, 45th Regiment, Was Accidentally Shot While in a Gun Store.

San Francisco, July 1.—Two important military events occurred at the Presidio Sunday. The retirement of Maj. Gen. W. H. Shafter and the mustering out of four volunteer regiments. Gen. Shafter went on the retired list at noon, when he formally transferred the command of the department of California to Maj. Gen. S. M. B. Young. In the afternoon the 44th, 49th, 48th and 38th volunteer regiments were mustered out. The mustering out of the four regiments required the services of eight paymasters. Over one million dollars was disbursed. The money was taken from the sub-treasury to the Presidio in eight Doherty wagons, each under the charge of a paymaster and his clerk. Forty-five artillerymen, mounted and armed, escorted the treasure and pay corps to the reservation. In order to protect the soldiers on the grounds from grafters, with their swindling devices, 100 men of Troop F, 15th cavalry, were stationed around the reservation.

Two of the regiments mustered out, the 48th and 49th, were colored, and the men had between three and four months' pay due them. As soon as the volunteers had been mustered out, they rushed to the railroad ticket office for transportation to their eastern homes.

Rush For Railway Ticket Office.

Both the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific general ticket offices put on extra forces of clerks. The ticket offices were crowded till late in the night with discharged volunteers buying tickets. Nearly 4,000 tickets were issued.

During the day an accidental shooting, which may have a fatal ending, occurred.

George Price, colored, of Kentucky, Company G, 45th regiment, accompanied by John Rogers, of the same company, went into the store of Hiren Bros. to buy a revolver. Price told the clerk he wanted a gun like the one Rogers carried. With this Rogers handed his gun to the clerk without warning that it was loaded. While the clerk was examining the pistol it was discharged. The bullet entered Price's abdomen, inflicting a wound that may result fatally.

There yet remains three volunteer regiments to be discharged, the 43d, 47th and 41st. They will be paid off Monday. The volunteer army will then have passed into history.
